THE Emerald PACKAGE from £895.00

If you would prefer to print a few pictures yourself and have your images stored safely on a CD, then this package is a good alternative to the album deals available.

Intended to be realistic, but affordable, this package offers the same high quality photography coverage and all images are edited to the same high standards as those that would be presented in an album.

The only difference is that you are buying the digital files and copyright permission to reproduce them for yourself as you see fit.

So, with this package, you will receive a CD containing 80 of your favourite images as high resolution files, presented in a top quality keepsake case. In addition, you still receive an on line gallery with password protection so that friends and relatives can view the images at their convenience.
