3. The Photographer(s) will document the events in a candid manner and take formal portraits as necessary. The client should provide a full list of formal photographs required including names and relationship to the client.

4. Prior to or during the event, the Client may inform the photographer of subjects which they would like photographed, but the final content of the images is at the discretion of the Photographer.

5. The Client will ensure that the guests at the event do not interfere with the Photographer's work.

6. When using digital photography, the Photographer(s) will be under no obligation to display the images while the event is still underway.

7. The Photographer retains the copyright to the images.

8. If the Photographer is unable to perform due to fire or other casualty, strike, or other cause beyond the control of the parties, or due to the Photographer's illness or injury, then the Photographer shall endeavour to locate a replacement to cover your event; if for any reason this is not possible all monies paid minus reasonable costs will be returned to the Client but shall have no further liability with respect to this agreement. This limitation on liability shall also apply in the event that images are lost through equipment malfunction, lost in the mail or otherwise lost or damaged without fault on the part of the Photographer. In the event that the Photographer fails to perform for any other reason, the Photographer shall not be liable for any amount in excess of the Photographer's fee.

8a. In the event of a cancellation by the Client your deposit will be forfeit, all other monies will be returned, unless it is less than 7 days until the event in which case all monies paid will be forfeit.

8b. In the event of the Wedding being postponed the Photographer shall make all reasonable attempts to accommodate the new booking arrangements made by the Client. However if for any reason the Photographer is not able to accommodate the new arrangements this will be considered a cancellation and your deposit will be forfeit.

9. Payment -The Client's payment to the Photographer shall be as follows:

A non-refundable deposit of £100 is due at the signing of this agreement.

A further 50% of the total package price is due 90 days (3 months before the wedding) if you have chosen a "website" package this will be ready for you within 14 days of payment.

The remainder of the Photographer's fee is payable in full not less than one week before your wedding day. Failure to pay this balance before the wedding may result in non-attendance by the photographer(s) to your event.

Re-print and enlargement orders should be paid for in full at time of ordering.

10. Proofs will be available approximately 5-7 working days after the wedding date and will be available to view online in your own private album.

11. The Photographer will maintain backup copies of the images in their archive for an unlimited period.
